EDITORIALS.

THIS IS A REPUBLICAN YEAR.

Let the Republicans of Jackson county nominate a clean progressive high class ticket and they will sweep the county just as they are going to sweep the state and nation.

The punishment inflicted upon a police officer for wantonly beating an aged Negro until he was confined in the hospital for more than three weeks was a reprimand. We suppose if he had killed him they might have laid him off for half a day without pay. Well, the commissioners may get some of that same medicine some day at the hands of some of their husky appointees. Such things have happened.

The appointment of Prof. Inman E. Page to the presidency of Western College, Macon, Mo., brings back into the state a beloved and highly respected educator whose reputation as a scholar is nation wide. The Baptists are to be congratulated for having secured as the president of their institution an able and distinguished scholar as President Page.

It will be pleasing to the many friends of Major Young throughout the country that his name has been submitted along with forty-three other majors for promotion to the rank of lieutenant colonel.

The reception to Bishop H. B. Parks at Allen Chapel last Wednesday night, tendered by the combined A. M. E. churches of the city, was a brilliant affair both intellectually and socially. A large representation from each A. M. E. church, headed by their pastor, was in attendance. An excellent program was rendered, interspersed with music by Ebenezer's famous choir. In replying to the various addresses of welcome the Bishop delivered a most profound and eloquent response that stirred the hearts of his hearers. After the exercises in the auditorium, delightful refreshments were served in the lecture room to all in attendance. Dr. J. R. Ransom, master of ceremonies, and he was happy in his various introductions.

Betty & Sam's Little Corner

THEY SAY

—That there will be a lot of sad hearts after the various Grand Lodges complete their sessions this year.

—That a real man is just as glad to render service as he is to accept it.

—That you cannot make the faults of other people smell any sweeter by airing them.

—That the most dangerous machine in the world outside of a machine-gun is a political machine.

—That the girls are getting as bad as the dudes not wanting to work only when they're hungry. Well, you can't make it that way.

That this is not near as hot as the place where a lot of people are going to take up their permanent residence some day.

—That Colonel Neal Range is putting the Uniform Department of the U. B. F. in the front rank. Well, that's no joke.

—That Colonel Bob Simpson is the same suave, dignified Chesterfield as of yore. The Colonel never grows old.

—That trouble has broken out in one of the prominent clubs of the city which threatens to disrupt the organization. Too bad.

—That everybody in town is buying an automobile so as to be ready for the big doin's in August. Well, they'll take a lot of them back in September, too.

—That a certain well known gentleman said: That if his gasoline would just hold out he would haul every good looking woman that came to town this summer. Well, he's making an effort.

—That a woman was overheard to remark to another that it was so hot at night that she just had to sleep in the bathtub, but judging from olfactory signs there was never any water in the tub.

—That at a recent dynamite explosion the lady had to go out in the yard to wake up the watchman who was employed to guard the house. Everybody within a radius of a mile was awakened except the watchman. Some watchman, ain't he?

—That when Kansas City has finished entertaining the State National Business League, the Western States Baptist Convention, the National Medical Association, the National Association of Railway Clerks and the National Baptist Convention she'll be ready to take a rest. Well, she'll be entitled to it, don't you think so? But you can bet they will all be entertained. Spruce up, boys and girls, and let's get ready.

Y. M. C. A. Notes

Prof. Inman E. Page, formerly president of Langston University, Langston, Okla., is making his home in the Y. M. C. A. building while in the city. Prof. Page has been elected president of Western College, Macon, Mo.

Mr. Richard Gaines, a member of the Boys' Work Committee of the Wabash avenue, Chicago, Ill., Association, visited our building last week. Mr. Gaines at one time resided in Kansas City.

Last week two students, Forest Smith and William Hawkins, of the Young Men's Bible Class, were awarded certificates by the committee of awards of the Y. M. C. A. These are the first certificates on Bible study received by the Paseo Y. M. C. A.

The members of the physical department are all enthusiastic over the shower baths and the big sanitary swimming pool. The attendance in the physical department is at this time forty per day.

Of the many guests that have made the Y. M. C. A. building their headquarters, Rev. Thomas B. Kelane of East Africa probably has created the most interest in the possibilities of the transforming power of Christianity. For ten years he studied at Wilberforce. After graduating from this school last year, he completed a course in Bible study at the Christian Training School, Edwards, Miss. He has made not only warm personal friends but made friends for the missionary work in Africa. He returns to his native land in September to establish a missionary training school for native Africans.
